

STUDENT VOICE

CURRICULUM

ENGAGE STUDENTS AS PARTNERS

Imagine a school where students...

- Are equitable partners throughout learning
- Partner with adults to improve learning, teaching, and leadership
- Share student voice to drive successful school transformation

TRANSFORMATIVE LEARNING

Each SoundOut module is designed for students grades 8-12. They include three 50-minute lesson plans apiece.

- Learning about Learning
- Learning about Education
- Learning about School Change
- Students as Researchers
- Students as Planners
- Students as Teachers
- Students as Evaluators
- Students as Decision-Makers
- Students as Advocates

The SoundOut Student Voice Curriculum was written by SoundOut director Adam F.C. Fletcher

soundout.org

adam@soundout.org

(360) 489-9680

SETTINGS

Suitable for leadership classes, service-learning programs, school improvement teams, student governments, after school programs, social science courses, independent study, and more

FEATURES

- 25 hours of lesson plans
- 20+ student handouts
- Facilitator's Guide with tips, scheduling, and more
- Technical support

RESULTS

- Increased student engagement
- Improved school culture
- Increased soft skills
- Heightened self-efficacy
- More effective school improvement
- Empowered teachers

